

Consumers deserve and have the right to free choice in the matter of their ISP. Bell South's request would if allowed would rob Customers of local ISPs of that ability. The local service we receive can't be duplicated by large companies.